

Analysis

1. With a p-value of 0.28, which is much higher than 0.05, there is no difference in survival between metastatic and nonmetastatic patients, which I defined as “Primary solid Tumor”. Since the survival lines are more jagged without large jumps, it also shows that the sample size is large enough to draw conclusions.

2.